Do you believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of the Living God?

Are you dedicated to the honor of His sacred name?

Members of the Holy Name Society say they do when they make the Holy Name Pledge. We even beg that Our Lord Jesus will keep us faithful to the pledge.

Our Faith, beliefs, and our God are now under attack by the ways of the world. They include our President and other elected officials, our legislatures, our courts, the media, those who profess to another or no “God”, our educational process, and Satan himself.

As a Confraternity of the Catholic Church the Holy Name Society is and must remain a defensive combatant to these attacks. We have been that for more than 700 years, ever since Blessed John of Vercelli received his, now our, Papal directive from Gregory X.

My motivation is one of appreciation for all He has done for me. It starts that He came as a man, suffered unimaginably, was crucified, and died for me and you personally. He is with us always; we need to also be with and for Him. His love for us and death gained our eternal salvation. More than just acknowledging that is needed from us.

To be viable, to remain in defense of Him, His Church, and our Faith, we must remain strong, active, and pray. In our own battle against the ways of the world the Chicago Association of Holy Name Societies faces both membership and financial challenges. With these in mind I ask that you join us in support of our 33rd Annual Spiritual Assembly at Five Holy Martyrs.

Pope Francis I

Elected Supreme Pontiff 13 March 2013

Formerly:

Cardinal Priest, Title of S. Roberto Bellarmino

– Appointed by John Paul II on 21 February 2001

Archbishop of Buenos Aires (28 February 1998– 13 March 2013)

Ordinary for Eastern-rite faithful in Argentina who lack an Ordinary of their own rite

Motto as Archbishop: Miserando atque eligendo/Miserable yet chosen.

Jorge Mario Bergoglio was born on 17 December 1936 in Buenos Aires, Argentina. He was ordained for the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) on 13 December 1969 during his theological studies at the Theological Faculty of San Miguel.

As served as a novice master in San Miguel, where he also taught theology, and later was the Jesuit Provincial for Argentina (1973-1979) and Rector of the Philosophical and Theological Faculty of San Miguel (1980-1986). After completing his doctoral dissertation in Germany, he served as a confessor and spiritual director in Córdoba.

On 20 May 1992 he was appointed titular Bishop of Auca and Auxiliary of Buenos Aires, receiving episcopal consecration on 27 June. On 3 June 1997 he was made Coadjutor Archbishop of Buenos Aires and succeeded Cardinal Antonio Quarracino on 28 February 1998. He is also the Ordinary for Eastern-rite faithful in Argentina who lack an Ordinary of their own rite. From 8 November 2005 until 8 November 2011 he served as President of the Bishops' Conference of Argentina.

He was created and proclaimed Cardinal by Bl. John Paul II in the consistory of 21 February 2001, with the Title of S. Roberto Bellarmino (St. Robert Bellarmine).

During the 10th Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops, in October 2001, he served as the Adjunct Relator General. He was also a member of several curial congregations: For Divine Worship and Discipline of the Sacraments; for the Clergy; for Institutes of Consecrated Life and Societies of Apostolic Life, as well as the Pontifical Council for the Family and the Pontifical Commission for Latin America.

On 13 March 2013 Jorge Mario Bergoglio, SJ, was elected Supreme Pontiff on the second day of the Conclave, on the fifth ballot.

O God, who in your providential design willed that your Church be built upon blessed Peter, whom you set over the other Apostles, look with favor, we pray, on Francis, our Pope and grant that he, whom you have made Peter's successor, may be for your people a visible source and foundation of unity in faith and of communion. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

This is a reminder to send your annual $50.00 dues, if not yet sent, to Gary Lewis at P.O. Box 4 Chicago, IL 60690. CAHNS officers receive no expenses or salary, everything is voluntary. Perhaps that is why we are looking to fill several current and anticipated office vacancies by June. We need men, volunteers willing to also show their appreciation to Him, to defend His Church, our Faith. Dues and raffle income are used to help other worthy causes also defending against the ways of the world. I can be reached at 847-894-3101. Thank you for considering all of the above. His disciple Matthew reminds us, "The gate to heaven is narrow, the gate to destruction is wide."

I remain With and for Him and His Holy Name,

Stan Baran – President CAHNS

2013 Fund Raising Raffle

We are limiting the ticket sales to 225 tickets. We have also kept the incentive for selling 5 tickets. Suggested donation for tickets are $50, and as last year we are selling five tickets for just $200-a $50 SAVINGS! We hope that this allows us to meet our goal of 225 tickets sold.

There are five prizes and an early bird drawing. The prizes are as follows: Grand Prize $5000, 2nd prize $1500, 3rd prize $1000, 4th prize $500, 5th prize $250 and the early bird prize is $250 (drawn 04/24/13). The top five prizes will be drawn at our Annual CAHNS Mass at Five Holy Martyrs on Saturday June 8th 2013. Contact Lou Rexing if wish to get some raffle tickets @ 773-447-7964. Thank You for your support!

THANK YOU!

Dear Paul and CAHNS,

It is with sincere gratitude and appreciation the family of Deacon Ed Condon acknowledges your extremely kind and thoughtful expressions of sympathy during this most difficult time. The flowers were beautiful as were the memorial services and the funeral mass. We are deeply grateful for all that CAHNS provided. Your organization was very close to our father's heart as we are sure you well know. Thank you for your heart felt participation. Words cannot express how truly meaningful everything was to us. Deacon Ed was loved and revered by many and he will be greatly missed. With heartfelt appreciation for the thoughtfulness you've shown.

May God Bless You All!
Diane, Ed and Terri

Blessed John of Vercelli by Rev. Paul Perrotta, O.P. a Book by NAHNS.

A series of articles written by the Very Reverend Paul Perrotta, O.P. on Fr. John Garbella O.P., a saintly and scholarly man, the Sixth Master General of the Dominican Order, were originally published in the Holy Name Journal. These articles were rewritten in treatise form, and published in a book by the National Association of the Holy Name Society in 1956 with the hope that Blessed John will become even better known. This book is long out of print. But you can read it on-line. Just go to the National Association of Holy Name Societies website at www.nahns.com and click on the link for Blessed John.
